Sydney Walters, Formerly of Pittsburg, Suicides in Chicago.

A RIVAL TO BRIGHAM YOUNG.

Several Wives of the Dead Man Have Already Been Reard From.

ONE SOMEWHAT PECULIAR TELEGRAM

Sent From This City by a Sister-in-Law of the Rash Tempter of Fate.

Sydney Walters committed suicide at the Hotel Richelieu, Chicago, by taking morphine. At one time he resided in Pittsburg. He is said to have led an extravagant life, and is claimed as husband by several women. A sister-in-law living in this city ells of his career here.

CHICAGO, April 18 .- A gentleman who has been stopping at the Hotel Richelieu since April 10, and was registered as Sidney Walters, suicided with morphine in his room last night. Walters spent money freely, and made many friends since arriving at the hotel. About 6:30 last evening a chambermaid, passing his room, heard labored breathing and notified the clerk. The door of the room was found to be doubly bolted on the inside, and it took some time to force an entrance. When this was ef-fected a physician was immediately sum-moned and everthing possible done to resus-citate Walters, but he was too far gone. At the inquest this morning Mrs Walters, who was notified last night to come to Chi-cago from Cleveland, took the stand and testified. She said she had been married to testified. She said she had been married to Mr. Walters about six months. He was an Englishman and a London newspaper man of considerable prominence. Since he had been in Chicago she had received three let-ters from her husband, in one of which he said he was tired of living and wanted to die. He could not make a success of lite. She did not think at that time, however, that his intentious were serious.

A PECULIAR TELEGRAM.

The young man notified a lady in Pittsburg of his intended self-destruction. At least he must have done so, as Mr. Carlson received a dispatch from the lady about three hours a ter Walters' death, asking if the young man had committed suicide. The telegram is as follows:

PITTSBURG, PA., April 17. To Hotel Richelleu:

Did Sidney Walters commit suicide to-day?

MRS. NORA ERMAN.

This would indicate that the young man had notified Mrs. Erman of his intention, and the lady, thinking it no idle threat had wired for information.

The suicide was attired in a new and ex-

The suicide was attired in a new and expensive full evening dress suit, including the regulation swallow-tail coat, white tie, boutonniere, kid gloves and patent leather shoes. He had evidently intended to die in good form and he succeeded. Why he committed suicide is not yet thoroughly de-

That he had two or more wives and was engaged in several gallantries is believed to have something to do with it. Mr. Carrol-son, chief clerk of the Richelien, says that Walters came to the hotel eight days ago. He took the best room in the house, threw his money around as though he owned a gold mine somewhere, gave big champagne suppers to hosts of gentlemen friends, drove out in the most expensive equipages, had boxes at the opera, and was a general swell all around.

A searca for letters or other things which would furnish a clew to the cause of the deed was fruitless. The only writing found was upon two telegrams which read as fol-

Later in the day Mr. Morris Greenburg, of this city, called at the Richelien and in-formed Mr. Carrollson that Walters boarded with him in this city in 1887, to-gether with his wife, an actress, whose name is Malvina Renner. He seemed to have plenty of money and lived in good walters came to this country eight years ago, and seven years ago he married my sister. His past lile was always shrouded in mystery. A great many people who knew him in the old country said that he had been a deserter from the English army, had been tried and convicted, and was just about to be transported as a convict, when he escaped and came to America. He was a fearfully wild fellow, and never supported my sister, and she was coming to Chicago this week to institute divorce proceedings. He was continually in scrapes with other women. He was a gambler and spent all he could get hold of in card playing. How feany other wives he had I don't know.

HE WAS A JOURNALIST.

The Chicago Suicide Has a Sister-in-Law Who Talks About Him.

The bister-in-law of J. Sydney Walters, the man who committed suicide in Chicago, and who sent the telegram given above, lives in this city, and to a DISPATCH reporter she said, last night:

"Sydney was a very handsome and clever man. He was a journalist by profession, and was very expensive in his dress, tastes and habits. He left Pittsburg about three months ago. While he was here he stayed at the Albemarle Hotel. My sister followed him a week later. Soon after I got a letter rrom him telling me that they were mar-

I believe he committed suicide because he was afraid that he could not make enough money to support himself and his wife in the style he would like. He was a despondent character. I remember when he was here he had once a quarrel with my sister, and he threatened then that he would commit suicide, if she would not make it up with him. He was married once before, but he got a divorce from his first wife. He was an Englishman by birth, born and bred

HIS LIFE IN CLEVELAND.

Walters Made One Attempt at Suicide While Realding in That City.

CLEVELAND, April 18.—For the past week the alleged wife of Sydney Walters has been residing with Rose Belmont, on Johnson street. From a resident of the same house a reporter heard the following story of Walters which, it was said, had been told by the woman. The suicide is an Englishman, and his family reside in that country. He called himself a journalist, and claimed this city as his home, although he traveled extensively through the surrounding country. Some months ago he met Katie Ermon in Pittsburg. An intimacy sprang up between the two, and the young woman accompanied Walters to this city. They lived companied Walters to this city. They lived for a time at a fashionable hotel, where Katie Ermon was known as Mrs. Sydney Walters. She claimed that he would have married her, but he could not obtain a divorce from his lawful wife, who, he alleged, was Estelle Clayton, the actress.

Walters' employer, a Mr. Perry, learned of the relations existing between the young man and his so-called wife and discharged him. The woman said that Walters became despondent at this time and tried to commit sucide, but was resucitated. He was unable to procure employment and left his ble to procure employment, and left his watch at the hotel to settle his bill. The woman pawned her watch in order to give him money with which to go to Chicago in search of work.

Arrest of Several of a Gaug That Coined Excellent Five-Cent Pieces-Large Numbers of the Coins in Circulation. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.

RONDOUT, N. Y., April 18 .- Some exeitement was occasioned here this afternoon by the appearance of Secret Service Detectives Matthew F. Griffin, William F. Volk and W. J. McManus, who had in their ofstody Frederick Brodbeck and Chester Collins, charged with counterfeiting. The ar-lins, charged with counterfeiting. The arrests were made at Eddyville, the tidewater termination of the Delaware and Hudson Canal, near this city.

Bogus 5-cent pieces have recently been roticed in circulation in large numbers along the line of the Lehigh and Delaware and Hudson canals. Merchants and others were largely victimized. The secret service was notified, and the above named officers detailed to ferret out the counterfeiters. The detailed to ferret out the counterfeiters. The detectives came upon the scene and accused Griffin of having stolen some property of theirs. Permission to search the boats was theirs. Permission to search the boats was given. The plan worked well, and concealed on the boat Foster, of which Brodbeck is captain, was about $70 in bogus 5-cent pieces, dies and tools used in making counterfeits. The nickels are excellent imitations and require expert eyes to distinguish them from the genuine.

Brodbeck lives at Buffalo, where he has a wife and several children. Collins halls from New York and is the owner of the boat Jacob Sinn. Both men are between 35 boat Jacob Sinn. Both men are between 35 and 40 years old. Brodbeck was arrested in Albany last summer, on a similar charge, but discharged for want of evidence. The prisoners were at once taken to New York. It is believed that the arrests will result in the capture and breaking up of a bad gang, and word has been sent to make other searches and arrests in Brooklyn.

A Man Carried From a Death Bed to Dr. Smith, the Magnetic Physician, at

No. 502 Penn Avenue.

It is seldom necessary to comment upon facts or upon that which is truly wonderful, yet one cannot refrain from expressing profound admiration for the skill which is raising so many sufferers from beds of pain and distress and restores them to health and vigor. It scarcely seems credible that such marvelous results can be obtained by the laying on of hands, and we should have been loth to believe these wonderful reports of Dr. Smith's remarkable cures only for the fact that we have been an eye witness, and seeing, you know, is believing. What we see with our own eyes we are bound to believe. The following cases treated by the Drs. Smith at the Grand Opera House and in their parlors, at No. 562 Penn avenue, speak for themselves. Mr. John Foley, who resides at Millvale, was taken with a terrible pain in his right shoulder upward of five mounts ago. The attack came upward of five months ago. The attack came on suddenly, like a shock of paralysis. The arm became useless in a few moments' time. He could not use the hand or move a linger. A short time after the attack he began to ex-A sort time after the attack he began to ex-perience pain in the shoulder. The pain in-creased in severity for a number of days, when it was discovered that there was an accumulation of pus in the shoulder joint. Mr. Foley applied to a doctor, who opened the shoulder with the knife. Large quantities of pus was discharged at the time and a fistula formed, which continued to discharge a thin, acrid pus. In this helpless and hopeless condition he applied to the Drs. Smith, the magnetic physicians, at 502 Penn avenue, and was cured perfectly. He has reawenue, and was cured perfectly. He has regained the use of his hand and arm, and is now well and happy. John McDonald suffered ten years from sciatics. Mr. McDonald sin an old gentleman, and was helpless for several years. He was cured on the public stage by one magnetic treatment. Scores of cases of loss of voice have been pured on the public stage by one treatment, as well as cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, and, in fact, all kinds of disease. All that the doctors do is to apply their hands to the affected parts for a few moments, when the cure is completed. Drs. Smith will continue to heal the sick free of charge at the Grand Opera House every morning this week from 10 to 11 o'clock.

Next Saturday morning will be their last appearance in the Grand Opera House, and will close their public healing of the sick. Hereafter those who desire to consult Dr. Smith may do so at his office, No. 502 Penn avenue. Consultation free from 9 A. M. until 7 P. M. daily. All letters of inquiry must contain two stamps. Nothing tops off a man to better advantage and proclaims the well-dressed gentleman than a glossy and stylish silk hat. A few years ago but few shining tiles were seen on men's heads here, in fact the wearing of them was confined mostly to New York, Philadelphia and Boston. But with the great improvements that have taken place in Pittsburg of late, and the general go-aheaditiveness of this city, silk hats have received that recognition which as a finishing feature of a gentleman's dress they fully deserve.
